DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of invention of Group II, claims 9-12 in the reply filed on 31 January 2007 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 9, the recitations "the particulate level" and "the amount" lack antecedent basis.

In claim 10, the recitation "the ozone level" lacks antecedent basis.

In claim 11, the recitations "the particulate level", "the concentration" and "the amount" lack antecedent basis.

In claim 12, the recitation "the ozone level" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102 and § 103

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 9-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fleischer (US 6,528,023 B2). Fleischer's invention is directed to a method for the treatment of air of at least one room by air ionization. Fleischer discloses that the method comprises the steps of ionizing the air; determining values of volatile hydrocarbons (read on the particulate), ozone and volatile oxidizable air components in the air (read on the oxidizable gas); and using the determined values to control a level of the air ionizing (Fig. 1; col. 4, line 42 through col. 5, line 4; col. 5, lines 15-29; and col. 2, lines 28-58).

7. Claims 9-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fleischer '023 in view of Taylor et al. (US 2004/0202547 A1). Fleischer is applied as above. If there is a difference between Fleischer and the above claims, it will be the determining of the particulate level in the air. Taylor shows in an air cleaner by air ionizing the provision of one or more environmental sensors connected to a control unit to control the level of air ionizing where the environmental sensor includes a particular sensor and an ozone sensor ([0029], [0030] and abstract). The subject matter as a whole would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified Fleischer's teachings as suggested by Taylor because this would result in improving air quality by ionizing air according to the changes in the environment.
